FAST YOUNG MEN. - A Boston letter says : The Rev. Henry Morgan has repeated his lecture on 'Fast Young Men' twenty-five times in Boston, and is engaged by the dry goods merchants of the city to deliver it again for the benefit of the clerks, who will be furnished with free tickets. He presents two classes of fast young men, those who reform and those who resist every effort made for their reformation. While paying tribute to their friends, Mr. Morgan deplores the vice of such men as Coleridge, the poet, who was a slave to rum; Burns, no less a drunkard, who was in a maud-lin state when he composed his immtortal lines over 'Highland Mary's' grave: Douglas Jerrold, the great wit, who was a devotee of gin; Lord Byron, the sum of whose life was gin, women and licentious poetry; De Quincey, whose imagination ran riot from the excessive use of opium; Steele, the brilliant author of the Christian Hero, who was a beastly drunk-ard; Charles Lamb, who was a votary of the cup; and lastly, Edgar A. Poe, from whose melancholy death from mania-a-potu a wholeome moral is drawn. Mr. Morgan's description of Poe, as he appeared before the Boston Lyceum, twenty-five years ago, while border ing on frenzy by recent potations, makes a forcible impression on the audience. Fast young men were not beyond the pale of salvation. Bunyan, Robert Clive, Benjamin Abbott, John Summerville, Richard Weaver, John B. Gough and others are mentioned as among those who have been reclaimed."

CHARLES WHITTLESEY, UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,

-AND-ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the flity per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The shown and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being Uni-ted States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. Two courses of lectures are delivered—the usual

Leesburg daily for Ball's Mill, Aldie and Mid

Winter, commencing in October, and an addi-tional Spring and Summer course. The Spring and Summer course of 1871 will commence on WEDNESDAY, March 22d, and continue four The lectures will be delivered jointly by the Faculty and Adjunct Faculty, the former giving special courses, and the whole affording a complete curriculum of medical instruction, elemen tary and practical

CLINICS: A Medical, a Surgical, a Woman's and a Children's Clinic, and a Clinic for the Eye and Ear. Opportunities for exercises in Diagnosis and Prescribing, in Operative and Minor Surgery and in Practical Chemistry, afforded the studen under careful supervision.
Attention is called to the advantages presented in this course for acquiring a practical knowl edge of the diseases of warm seasons and clim ates, constituting the larger proportion of all the diseases requiring the care of the practitioner in the Middle and Southern States. The Faculty, though not exacting attendance on this course as a condition for the degree, are o impressed with its importance to thorough professional training, that they encourage it by crediting the fees on the tickets of the winter seaion, and by employing the facilities for board under their control, so as practically to enable the student to enjoy its advantages with a trifling addition to the cost of the Winter Lectures alone quisition of the year's previous study with a preceptor, either for admission to this course, or for candidacy for the degree, to those who have otherwise complied with the usual requirements. For announcement, with details, or other formation, address, M. L. JAMES, M.D.,
